Session 1

Making guesses

- MUST
  - 90% certain: We use 'must' when something is highly probable.
    - The owner of the bag must be a man.
    - You've worked hard all day. You must be tired.

    - She must be happy.

Making guesses

- MAY/COULD/MIGHT
  - 50% certain: We use 'may,' 'could,' or 'might' when something is possible.
    - This person may/could/might like to watch movies.
    - Someone is calling. It may/could/might be my sister.

    - He might be nervous.

Review

- MUST
  - 90% certain: We use 'must' when something is highly probable.
    - The owner of the bag must be a man.

- MAY/COULD/MIGHT
  - 50% certain: We use 'may,' 'could,' or 'might' when something is possible.
    - This person may/could/might like to watch movies